    - 1. 250 year anniversary of our nation will be in July of 2026. Perhaps a way to bring families together and celebrate could be a good event for MCIB.
    - 2. Perhaps MCIB could potentially do a business float in the Maryville Homecoming parade. The theme will be "Toon Town".
  - B. MCIB positions and committee Vacancy
    - 1. Margie Siems has a suggestion of someone that might be interested in MCIB.
- XI. Open Forum
  - A. No items.
- XII. Mayor and Liaison Comments
  - A. Keebler Round-a-bout
    - 1. Ameren is working on gas lines; next the water lines will be worked on which will close part of Keebler. Work on the round-a-bout will begin the end of March. 162 will be open but will likely be down to one lane. Construction is expected to take about six months.
  - B. The round-a-bout in Troy at Old Troy Road and 162 could begin in June.
  - C. Hoping to resurface the front of Nottingham.
  - D. Probably within 30 days of going out for bid on the new entertainment pavilion in Firemen's Park
