 - . Yard Sale Signs are with Pam - she will be out of town over the upcoming Yard Sale dates and needs someone else to put out the signs.
 - . A number of MCIB members have volunteered to put the signs out.
 - a. Does Maryville offer limb pickup and chipper service?
 - . Residents can take yard waste (limbs, etc) to Collinsville Township to take it. You will need to bring your township tax form to show you are a Maryville residents.
 - b. Discussion of water hydrant painting. Pam noticed that a number of fire hydrants had been painted one color. In a discussion about a fire hydrant contest, it was noted the top color of fire hydrant indicated the flow/pressure of the fire hydrant.

- c. Pam saw something around "did you know" and was wondering if Maryville entities (departments, etc) could/would post things to keep village members informed of items they didn't know?
 - d. Pam was wondering if we had thought about doing a bike ride, 5k or other type of activity.
 - . It was mentioned that this was more likely a Parks and Recreation item.
 - e. Discussion about fundraisers (Fireman's picnic) came up.
 - . Discussion about a Christmas Market that could allow for some funds to go to the Fireman's picnic.
 - f. Inquiry about the dedication of the statues came up
 - . Mike Villano noted that there is something coming, but dates have not been finalized.
 - g. Planning for next years Young Citizen's Award was discussed.
 - h. Question about the park that CARD has handed off to the village. The sign will be redone to have Village of Maryville on it, where "CARD" was located on the sign.
