- X. New business
  - A. Yard of the Month - stones / garden flags
    - 1. Motion by Nancy LeVault to approve Rick and Tina Reish at 2150 Tuscan Ridge Court as the May yard of the month. Second by Adam Johnisee. Motion approved.
    - 2. Stones will not be available at least until mid-summer, so Mayor Short suggested ordering signs for Yard of the Month.
    - 3. Motion by Brenda Crisler to purchase signs rather than stones for Yard of the Month for this year. Margie Siems seconded. Motion approved.

XI. Open Forum

- A. The Maryville Farmer's Market will continue as a drive-thru market. Other markets are opening with strict social distancing rules.
  - 1. Thank you to Mayor Short to help navigate the traffic.

XII. Mayor and Liaison Comments

- A. New businesses are still opening and still moving forward with plans.
- B. The census is still moving forward. Maryville is doing well in response rate, but please continue to share information on the census.
- C. A lot of street repairs have been made with reduced traffic and looking forward to working on storm drains soon as well.
- D. Board is still meeting and working via Zoom.
- E. All of village buildings are closed except for the lobby of the police department. Appointments can be made, though.
- F. Village is looking at plans to reopen.
- G. Homecoming is scheduled 60 days from today, and a decision has not been made as to whether homecoming will move forward.
- H. Mike Vallino commented that if you see neighbors that aren't taking care of their lawn, please let the village know, and they will take care of it.
